

Colts Lose Final Game With Petersburg--Griff Changes Lineup

GIANTS SCAMPER LOOSE ON SACKS

Steal Eight Bases and Win Two Games From Boston Easily.

NEVER MISS DOYLE, WHO IS SUSPENDED

Red Ames and Jeff Tesreau Both in Form—Speed of McGraw's Club Is Clearly Shown—Batting Averages Are Boosted Considerably as Giants Clout Ball.

Boston, April 19.—"Red" Ames pitched the Giants to their third straight victory in the first half of today's double-header, and Tesreau carried them through in the second game. Even without their slugging Captain Larry Doyle, who has been suspended for three days for "messing" the umpire yesterday, the Giants had little trouble winning the first 7 to 2. The superior baserunning of the National League champions became very evident when they pilfered eight sacks off Devotch, Herzog, Snodgrass and Murray each getting away with a pair. Ames fanned ten of the Braves.

The second game was easy. The visitors found Hess for four hits in the third, which, coupled with a muffed fly and a pass, netted four runs. In the fifth and sixth a fusillade of hits, intermingled with misplays, tallied three each. The game was never in doubt.

PIRATES BEST REDS
Pittsburgh, April 19.—The Pirates today defeated the Cincinnati Reds in a most exciting game, the final score being 6 to 5. The Pirates led in the first inning by scoring three runs, but the Reds caught up with them in the fourth and went to the front in the sixth, when they crossed the plate twice.

However, the Reds scored in the eighth, in the ninth Hoblitzel hit for two bases; the next two batters went out. Grant went to base on balls when Clark was at bat, hitting two strikes called on him, the next ball went over the plate, but too high for Clark, who made a wild swing. Gibson caught the ball and ran toward the bench, but the umpire called a ball, and the crowd yelled angrily and made more noise when Hoblitzel stole third during the fracas. Clark then hit up a foul, which was caught by Gibson, and the game was over.

PHILLIES LICK DOGERS
Brooklyn, April 19.—For the third time in as many games the Phillies defeated the Dodgers by a single score, and in each case the score was 1 to 0. The only one failed in the game. Ragon the only one failed in the game.

GOOBERS, WITH VANCE, TAKE FINAL CONTEST

Inability of Colts to Hit Is Cause of Shut Out Defeat at Hands of Petersburg—Burleson Pitches What Should Have Been Winning Ball.

A young man named Vance plus eight other individuals who live in Petersburg during the greater part of the year, are responsible for this gloomy ending to a week which started with all the darts of the rainbow. Richmond lost a second time to her friendly rivals yesterday, this time by the same score that the Griffmen were able to take the first encounter, the count being 3 to 0.

It wasn't exactly because the Colts were unable to hit Mr. Vance that defeat came. He wasn't any harder to find than was Burleson, but Griff and his men were unable to do their hitting with any degree of regularity. Throughout the entire engagement the Griffmen got exactly a double trio of bingles. These were spread in lonely array through just six innings. There was one in the first, another in the second, a like amount in the third, fourth and fifth, and the skipping one lonely box, the final safety was registered in the eighth.

TOMMY MURPHY IS WOLGAST'S MASTER

Harlem Lad Given Decision After Twenty Rounds of Grueling Battle.

San Francisco, Cal., April 19.—Tommy Murphy, from Ad. Wolgast after twenty rounds of desperate fighting, and won so decisively that there was not a dissenting murmur in Coffroth's Eight Street arena when Referee Griffin grabbed Murphy's blood-soaked right glove and held it aloft.

For fully seventeen rounds there was nothing to choose between the pair of human gamecocks. Murphy, it may be said, fought the more persistently of the two, and for that matter, scored the greater number of punches. But when Wolgast landed he landed with greater force than his adversary, and this applies particularly to the body blows that were exchanged. From the very opening round Wolgast acted like a fellow who felt that he had a long and tortuous journey before him, and that he recognized that it was necessary to husband every ounce of energy he possessed.

He fought carefully and until his strength began to wane he fought well. Murphy, for that matter, gave no exhibition of foolhardy boxing. He was scarcely as vehement as usual, but he made every point tell. It was a case of two men who had met before and who knew just what to watch for. There was no knockdown at any stage of the bout. At the close of the seventeenth round Murphy's lightning hooks and upercuts balanced Wolgast's body smashes. Wolgast was the weaker of the pair and in the eighteenth during a desperate spell of lightning Murphy split Wolgast's lip with an uppercut.

The gore flowed freely and Ad became weaker still. He tried hard to offset the lead Murphy gained and failed. For the back of the twentieth round Murphy held himself together and allowed Wolgast to fight himself out. Then Harlem Tommy began a blizzards finish and was literally tearing Wolgast's head off when the gong signalled the end of the bout.

Cobb Ready to Talk

Chicago, April 19.—Am now ready to talk business if offer still stands. Await your orders." This telegram from "Ty" Cobb, at Augusta, Ga., was received here today by L. J. Coyle, Illinois representative of an automobile supply company of Loganport, Ind., who announced several days ago that he had offered the "Georgia Peach" an automobile and a salary of $15,000 for one year's work as city salesman of the concern to Chicago.

GRIFFIN IS HUNTING FOR MORE PITCHERS

Will Make Trip to Washington in Effort to Land Ayers—Kelly Harris Sold to Ottawa Club—Only Fourteen Men Will Be Taken to Norfolk.

IS YOUR PICTURE HERE?

Here's an opportunity for every fan of both sexes in the city of Richmond. On this page of the Sporting Section is printed a section of a picture. If your picture happens to be the one, come to the office of the sporting editor any time this week before Thursday and get a ticket to the game. This ticket will admit you to the gate and the grandstand.

Just to furnish something out of the ordinary to the fans, The Times-Dispatch will continue printing such a picture each day during the season. All parts of the stands will furnish a mark for the camera men. Some day it will be the grandstand, another time it will be the left field bleachers, and at still another time it will be the right field bleachers. Follow the pictures and see if you are the lucky one. There is no trick, and you will not know when you are being snapped, unless you watch the pictures. There are three will be published as soon as they claim their tickets.

BY GUS MALBERT.
Though but three games have been played in the Virginia League, Steve Griffin has come to the conclusion that he needs pitchers. At the beginning of each season it is always the best policy to deal leniently with the talent arriving for the usual grid of trying to land. This has always been the policy of the writer. The weakness of Griffin's pitching staff has been no secret. Aside from Burleson and Strain, the talent on hand is not such as to give real hope for a pennant-winning team. Griffin knows it. Harvey Bussey, next to the two fingers mentioned, has shown the most class. Walter Smartwood, the Maryland youngster, will be retained, and Tick Turner will also be given a chance to show one again.

Turner failed miserably when called upon to relieve Bussey in Petersburg on Friday. When he first appeared over here he showed a world of speed, and he was able to get off a fast change of pace calculated to fool the average batsman. In Petersburg he depended entirely upon a slow curve ball and a fast chuck, neither of which could fool anybody. He didn't appear to be working, though this may be an injustice.

Steve will leave for Washington Tuesday or Wednesday to have another heart-to-heart talk with Clark Griffin in an attempt to get Ayers back with the Colts this season. There is no possible chance for Griffin to use the Hillville terror, and Richmond can use him to good advantage. Everything will be presented to the Washington manager just as it is, and naturally he will have the first call on the services of the doctor should he pass on any right. Ayers pitched against the Blues in a game Friday.

and struck out nineteen, which indicates that he still retains much of his cunning.
Charles Kelly Harris has been sold to the Ottawa club of the Canadian League by Griffin. The deal was closed yesterday, and Charles or Harris or Kelly left last night for his new home in Chateaufort. He is a willing boy, and has the ability. Somehow or other he failed to live up to expectations here. He was unable or unwilling to listen to advice, and Steve feels that he has made a good deal. A satisfactory amount of cash came with the deal.

Plez, who was hurt just before the game in Petersburg Friday, has practically recovered and will be in the lineup against the Tars to-morrow. In order to strengthen his team, Griffin will send his men to the bat in the following order:
Griffin, second base.
Laval, right field.
Raley, first base.
Eberts, centre field.
Breannan, third base.
Newton, shortstop.

JOHNSON HOLDS YANKEES HELPLESS

Speedy Walter Scores Shut-Out Against Highlanders.

CHASE AT FIRST FAILS TO HELP

Yanks Start Shortlived Rally in Ninth, When Daniels Lands for Single-Speed Marvel Tightens, and Peerless Leader Concedes Game to Visitors.

New York, April 19.—The Yankees were helpless before the speed of Walter Johnson to-day, and the Senators won their third game of the series, 3 to 0. Only five hits were tallied for the big Swede's delivery, and these were few and far between.

Chase again got into the game at first to-day after several days' sojourn at second, but even with this aid to the infield the locals could not cope with their opponents, backed by Johnson's "smoke." The Yanks started a slight rally when Daniels singled in the ninth, but it was short-lived. Walter fanned, Hartzell forced Daniels at second and Cree popped to Gaddi. With three men out Chase conceded the game to Washington.

ATHLETICS TRIM SOX

Philadelphia, April 19.—Heavy stick work by the Athletics won the last game of the series from the Red Sox to-day by the score of 7 to 5. The blackbirds hit three Boston pitchers for fourteen hits. Plank and Wyckoff had little terror for the visitors, but Penneck held them safely.

The Athletics got a five-run lead in the first two innings and put over the winning tallies in the fourth on three straight hits. Plank, who followed Olson, was not effective, and was relieved by Leonard in the fifth. Plank weakened in the second and third, and was succeeded by Wyckoff, a recruit. He was wild, and was taken out in the sixth by Penneck. Penneck held the Red Sox safe for the remainder of the game.

NAPS FINISH FIRST

Chicago, April 19.—The Cleveland Naps beat the White Sox, 2 to 1, in a slugfest to-day. The Naps hammered three Sox pitchers, starting on Lange and finishing on R. and C. Smith, two recruits. Falkenberg was hit hard by the Sox, but was steady in the pinch, and a dozen Chicago "bats" were left on bases. Harry Lord, with four hits, including a double and triple, led the sluggers.

Victim of Baseball

Wilmington, N. C., April 19.—Convulsion of the brain, following a blow on the head this afternoon by a pitched ball, caused the death of James Thompson, Jr., twenty-five years old, at Kingsdale, N. C. No blame was attached to the pitcher after an official investigation of the accident.
